In plantations seeds only must be collected. No lopping of leaves is permitted.

2. No person shall be allowed to bid unless he has deposited with the officer conducting the sale a sum of Rs. which must be in the form of currency note. The deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned immediately after the sale.

3. The exclusive right of collecting and removing the produce above described will be disposed of to the highest bidder subject to the confirmation of the District Forest Officer or Chief Conservator of Forests as the case may be, who at his discretion may accept or reject the highest or any other bid without assigning any reason therefor.

4. The successful bidder shall, at the close of the sale, pay the entire amount of sale including the deposit already paid as per para 2 above, together with local cess at one anna per rupee and railway cess at three pies per rupee and education cess at six pies per rupee on the entire sale amount. In default the deposit already paid will be forfeited and the right resold. Such resale will be at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, who will be liable to make good any loss that may result to Government by such resale, but will not participate in any profit accruing therefrom.

N.B.—If the deficit be not paid, the same will be recovered as an arrear of the land revenue.

5. If the sale is not confirmed, the amount paid will be refunded to the party.

6. The accepted bidder shall execute an agreement on duly stamped paper, within fifteen days of the intimation of the confirmation of the sale, binding himself to observe the conditions specified hereunder. In default, the acceptance of his bid will be revoked, the money already paid forfeited and the right resold at his risk.

7. The successful bidder shall furnish security deposit equal to $\frac{1}{4}$th of the sale amount.

Conditions to be observed by the lessee.

(a) The lessee shall hold himself responsible for the cutting or injuring other trees on the plea of collecting the produce. He shall be held personally responsible for the acts of his agents or servants.

(b) The lessee shall furnish a list of sub-contractors, agents or servants who may be appointed by him for the collection of the produce.

(c) The lessee shall work out the lease himself and not transfer or sub-let it to others without the previous sanction of the District Forest Officer.

(d) The coolies employed by the lessee must take permission from the Range Officers concerned before they enter Forests.

(e) The lessee shall take permits from the Range Officers concerned for the export of produce collected by him.

(f) The lessee, his agents or servants shall render all possible help in preventing the occurrence of fires in forests in which he or they may be working and render prompt assistance in extinguishing such fires as may break out accidentally.

(g) The lessee shall remove out of the limits of the Forest all produce collected under the terms of the lease before the contract period, i.e., 30th June 1931.

(h) Neither the lessee nor his servants shall enter the State Forests either before sunrise or after sunset.

(i) The lessee shall keep and render accounts every month to the District Forest Officer of the produce collected and removed by him or his agents during the month. His accounts will be liable for the inspection of the Conservator of Forests or the District Forest Officer or by any other Officer deputed by either of them.

(j) The lessee should not cut branches thicker than three fingers width.

8. In the event of the breach of any of the above conditions, the lease will be liable to be cancelled and the lessee fined to the extent of Rs. 50 at the discretion of the District Forest Officer.

M. A. VARADACHAR,
District Forest Officer.
